

The Research and Education Collaborative with Al-Quds University

The Research and Education Collaborative with Al-Quds University (RECA) is a non-profit 503© organization. It was founded by Anan Fared in 2010 in Boston, Massachusetts.

RECA PROGRAMS:

Academic Exchange- The exchange program provides opportunities to scholars to learn through shared training courses, and workshops.

Academic Scholarships- Scholarships, grants, and other funding sources are identified to assist research and education.

Academic Donation- On-going donations from RECA of textbooks, laboratory, and clinical equipment.

Our Mission:

RECA aims to promote cooperative research and education training programs between scholars, students, educators, and other professional at Al-Quds University and their counterparts in the United States. RECA also raises funds to provide grants for the benefit of Al-Quds University in Jerusalem, in support of its academic and scholarship programs with American colleges, universities, and other institutions of learning.

Donate to Support RECA!

Join the initiative and help students pursue higher education opportunities. RECA is a certified 501\(c\)\(3\) non-profit organization. You can donate below by visiting our website www.recaalquds.org or by contacting RECAQuds@gmail.com. Any amount is a great step to moving towards continuing the mission to promote research and education training programs between scholars, students, educators, and other professionals at Al-Quds University and their counterparts in the United States.